

MOKENA AMVETS and the Mokena fire department are busy these days getting in the last licks on preparations for their 11th annual fall dance and turkey party. Baskets of holiday goodies will be awarded as prizes in the course of the evening. The turkeys, it should be added, will be dressed and not alive as is the bird here. Miss Roberta Deaville, of Mokena, had a firm grip on the turkey, and the situation, when this picture was taken but can you imagine what would happen at a dance if a bunch of turkeys got loose and joined in the festivities. The affair is scheduled for the night of Dec. 9 in the VFW hall on Wolf road, Mokena.

Petition To Establish Junior College District

A petition for the establishment of the long-talked-of junior college has been presented to Noble J. Puffer, Cook county superintendent of schools, by residents of several high school districts, including Lincoln-Way and Carl Sandburg.

The Lincoln-Way district is the only one in Will county so the petitions asking that a junior college district be created was filed in Cook county. Supt. Puffer will in turn file the petition with the state superintendent, George Wilkins. Wilkins will conduct a public hearing and then if he believes the operation of a junior college be feasible in the area he will order an election. The people of the proposed district will then make the final decision.

The people will say if a junior college district is to be formed and at the same time ballot on the question of tax levies for educational and building purposes.

According to figures compiled by those who have made a survey of the area this junior college district would be one of the richest in the state, including as it does the industrial areas in the vicinity of Clearing and Argo. It is estimated by the survey committee that in another 10 years the assessed valuation of the district will exceed $2-billion and at that time it is expected that the enrollment would be up to the 5,300 mark, which is about twice the prospective current enrollment.

Bremen, Rich and Homewood-Flossmoor had been included in the proposed district as originally planned but they have other ideas and have withdrawn. With these three out the proposed junior college district would be lined up so that the most central location for the school would be in Orland area, it was said. If this should work out that way it would be most convenient for Lincoln-Way and Sandburg students.

The car is becoming a status symbol. Our purpose in getting into one is to wait in a traffic jam while empty trains go by.

GED Tests Set For First 2 Saturdays In December

Final plans for the administration of the GED (General Educational Development) tests for the Joliet Testing center, serving Will and Kankakee counties, have been formulated and will begin Saturday, Dec. 2. These tests enable those unable to finish high school to get the equivalent of a diploma by passing an examination.

Tests will be given at Joliet Township high school and junior college on the first and second Saturday of the month. Applicants must apply in person to County Superintendent Verne E. Cracker and complete application form GED 10.

The legal fee of $5 for permission to take the test must be submitted with the application. Tests will be given in Room 219 and applicants must report no later than 8 a.m. on test days.

Charles F. Woolard, member of the Joliet high school faculty, has been appointed testing service agent for this center. He will administer and score the tests.

There are five tests in the GED program, each test taking approximately two hours to complete. The total program will require two days to complete.

Illinois residents, who are eligible for the high school equivalency certificate, must pass a test on the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Illinois. This test must be given first and scored before the applicant can proceed with the remaining five tests.

A $5 fee will be charged for the issuance of the GED certificate of equivalency by the county superintendent.

LIGHTING THE CANDLES at a Girl Scout investiture ceremony Monday, Nov. 20, at the Frankfort Methodist church is Marilyn Klier. Looking on, from the left, are Kathy Walters, Peggy Nissen and Jennifer Kelly. The joint investiture rite was held for new Girl Scouts from Frankfort, Manhattan, New Lenox and Mokena. After the ceremony was completed, refreshments were served to the parents from a table decorated in Girl Scout colors and centered with a Girl Scout Trefoll.

Annexation Proposal Before Frankfort Board

A Frankfort man appeared before the village board there to get that body's reaction on plans which would include construction of a restaurant and what he called a convention hall that would seat 400 persons. The property is now outside the village.

Appearing before the board was George Heichel, who has an option on seven and a half acres along U.S. 30 east of U.S. 45. The land belongs to Leonard Patterson.

Before proceeding with plans Heichel wanted to know whether he could have the property annexed and connected to the village sewer system, and also if he could be assured of getting a license to sell liquor. The property in question is now zoned as farm land and Heichel would have to have it reclassified to B-2.

According to Trustee Milton Subbert the village engineer, Robert Hamilton, told him that it would cost about $10,000 to run sewer and water to the property and that most communities he knew about paid about 25% of such cost in these cases because of prospective revenue. The matter was put over until the next meeting, Dec. 4.

The village now issues three liquor licenses, two Class A, where entertainment is provided, and Class B where there is no entertainment. The fee is the same, $500 a year.

Paul Lambrecht, a road building contractor, appeared before the board to ask acceptance of the streets in Connecticut Hills. He had a letter from Hamilton dated Nov. 15 to the effect that the streets met specifications and were acceptable. On this recommendation of the engineer the board accepted the streets.

The board voted that vendors of any material in the village, whether they deliver the goods or simply take orders, must pay a license fee of $25. Three women in Frankfort take orders for cosmetics for the same firm. The board suggested that if the manufacturer would buy the license all three of the women could use it but the company wasn't having any.

Village Attorney Krusemark told the board that the courts have held that in the case of taking orders for books, magazines and bibles a license wasn't necessary in that the salesmen merely took orders and did not make deliveries. Krusemark pointed out, however, that such decisions were concerned only with magazines, books and bibles.

An ordinance effective Dec. 1 sets the combined water and sewer connection fee at $250 -- $100 for the sewer and $150 for the water. Developers of subdivisions who install their own sewer and water systems do not have to pay connection fees. Connection fees for industry and retail firms employing more than 10 persons will be set by the board after studying each case separately.

The Northern Illinois Gas Co. is asking permission to drill manholes, 12 feet deep and 12 inches in diameter to install a device for inhibiting rust in the mains. The company also wants to construct what it calls a well, 4 feet square and eight feet deep at Ash and Kansas street.

MARTIN MEDEMA

Mokena Man Bowls 299

While missing the magic score of 300, the dream of every bowler, Martin Medema, Sr., of 114th ave. and Front street, Mokena, a printer, won his way into an even more select circle last week when he rolled a 299 game at the Frankfort Lanes as a member of the Muehler Tavern team in the Mokena Men's League.

It was his first game of the evening and usually when such a thing occurs -- unless one is a pro -- the pressure reached in rolling such a score takes a toll and the next two games are clunkers.

This was not the case with Marty. He started the second game with a strike and wound up with 201 and repeated that total in the third for a 701 series and 700 is excellent shooting in any company.

Marty acknowledged that when he got up to bowl in the 12th frame his knees were knocking but he sent the ball away in good form and had one of those hits that could have taken all the pins but the eight stood up.

In the 20 years the league has been bowling Marty has the highest game and the highest series bowled. He will receive numerous awards and prizes.

Arraign Four For Speeding At Mokena

When Robert Rust, 28, of East Brightway street, Mokena, is arraigned before Police Magistrate James Surovick tonight (Thursday) he is scheduled to face two charges, speeding and operating a car without a driver's license.

He was arrested Saturday night about 9:45 o'clock by Mokena Police Chief Vernon Bormet after a five-mile chase north on Wolf road that began in Mokena and ended between 159th and 143rd streets. Bormet said there were intervals when the speed was 95 miles an hour in 50 m.p.h. zones.

Chief Bormet said Rust's driver's license has expired.

The chief also arrested three other motorists Saturday for driving too fast on Wolf road. Bormet served notice that plans to enforce the speed limits in the village, including that on Wolf road.

The three motorists, besides Rust, were all traveling 60 miles an hour in a 40-mile zone, the chief said.

Two of those ticketed were from Mokena, Don E. Jeffers, 20, of Woodland Circle and James M. Murdoch, 46, of 185th and Wolf rd.

The other motorist charged is Randall R. Smith, 17 years old, of 130 Hickory street, Frankfort.

Broadway, Joliet, and telling them that you have not received seals.

The question being debated is whether Illinois should adopt a right-to-work law.

Dallas Muchi, debate coach at Lincoln-Way, said that he probably would not know until tomorrow which two of the school's debaters will make the trip. As of now the choice has been reduced to three, Jim Lakin, of New Lenox, Michael Tate and Kay Van Rheeden, the two latter of Frankfort.

Boy Scout Turkey Shoot Is Hailed As Success

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Mokena 5740

The Summit Hill Boy Scout Troop Number 10 held its first annual turkey shoot at the Frankfort Sportsman Club on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 18. The day was clear and the turnout good.

The shooting started after the semi-monthly newspaper pick-up, which had been held in the morning hours. There were thirteen turkeys awarded as prizes for shooting excellence with the shotguns provided for the event.

Tony Surma of 9524 West Willow Lane felt that he would be unable to attend the Turkey Shoot, so he asked his neighbor to shoot for him with his ticket. When his neighbor had one hit from two shots, he flipped a coin to decide who would win the turkey. Tony won.

The next newspaper pick-up will be held on Saturday, Dec.

2. Please have the newspapers bundled and placed, either at the front door, or at the garage door; not at the curb.

The Arbory Hills Civic Association will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Summit Hill school in Arbory Hills on Tuesday evening, Dec. 5, at 8 o'clock.

There was a meeting of the Arbory Hills kindergarten organization held at the home of Mrs. Robert Burdett of 9442 West Hickory Street. There is no meeting scheduled for the month of December at this time.

The possibility of a children's Christmas party was discussed at the November meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Arbory Hills Baby Sitters Cooperative at the home of Mrs. Donald Munday of 9431 West Pine street on Wednesday evening, Dec. 13, at 8 o'clock.

The organization wants to discuss a possible revision of the rules, and also to bring the secretary's book up-to-date on the number of children and their ages.

It would be appreciated if all members would make an effort to attend this meeting, and to let Mrs. Munday know whether or not you will attend. You can contact her by phone at Mokena 5948. Calls should be made the day of the meeting.

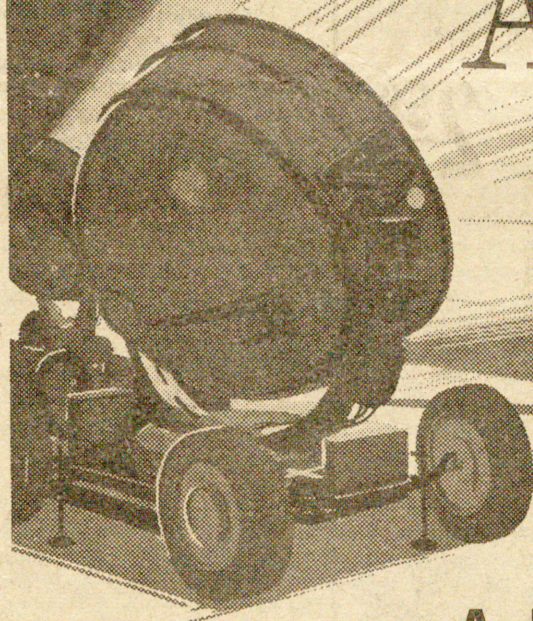

There will be a meeting of the school board of the Summit Hill School District 161 in Arbory Hills on Monday evening, Dec. 4, at 7:30 in the school.

Mrs. Joseph Huelett of 19553 South Beechnut Drive and Mrs. Ann White of 19611 South Beechnut Drive, her next door neighbor; went to Gary, Indiana last Tuesday to visit Mrs. Huelett's sister, Mrs. James Kinbrow. The ladies spent an enjoyable day visiting, and returned that evening to Arbory Hills much refreshed.

Robert Bruce Mansell made his appearance on Nov. 17 at the Hinsdale Sanitarium. He is the proud owner of two delighted parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mansell, and one brother, Richard, Jr. (Peanuts) who is just over one year old.

Young Master Mansell weighed in at six pounds fifteen ounces at birth, and while his mother recuperates, his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Dorothy Mansell is caring for the big brother Peanuts. This is the first boy born of Arbory Hills in many months. It was beginning to seem as though only girls could be born from here.

Candidates Are Flexing Their Muscles

While partisan politics, at candidate level, have been obscured for the most part by world problems and disasters, they have not been forgotten and certainly not forsaken.

As long as there are men and women political position will remain a lure at all levels from precinct right up to the top, which is the Presidency.

The Presidency, of course, is the main prize and those with or aspirations for such office are forever planning and devising. The count is scarcely completed in a Presidential election before plans are launched for the next campaign.

Who will nomination? This is the question. The Democrats, of course know who their choice will be -- John F. Kennedy. That being decided the Democratic high command can devote all of its energies toward his reelection, with of course special emphasis on the congressional contests. It is only natural that they will endeavor to elect a congress that would go along with the policies and aims of the administration.

The Republicans, however, have quite a job. They have to pick a banner bearer as well as devise campaign strategy and strive to wrest some congressional seats away from the Democrats.

At the moment it would appear that the lot would fall to one of three men, all able, all well known, all ambitious -- Gov. Rockefeller, on the left, Senator Goldwater on the right and Richard Nixon in the center.

Mr. Nixon, a candidate for governor in California has said that if elected to that office he would not be a candidate for the Republican nomination for President. What he would do in the event there was a deadlock between Goldwater and Rockefeller he has not said. Political observers say, however, that no one has ever turned down a genuine draft for the presidency.

Some are prepared to deal Mr. Nixon out on the basis that he lost in 1960. It was a close race and Mr. Nixon's margin of defeat was an exceedingly narrow one but he was the loser and past performances show losers do not fare well on their next outs. And if one wants examples let him look to what happened to William Jennings, Bryan, Thomas Dewey and Adlai Stevenson.

It is quite possible that Mr. Nixon could be the exception but perhaps he feels he should have new laurels with which to enter a campaign and has hopes of earning them as chief executive of California.

It may be too that Mr. Nixon feels that Mr. Kennedy is certain to be elected and prefers to wait his turn against his would-be successor on the Democratic ticket.

If Senator Goldwater and Gov. Rockefeller contrive to kill one another off in 1962 it is not likely that Mr. Nixon's grief would be inconsolable.

Senator Goldwater and Gov. Rockefeller have both been making utterances calculated to advance their hopes. Some say that Rockefeller will have to be reelected governor of New York if he is to have serious consideration as presidential timber. This had been looked upon as a certainty but that was before it was announced that he and his wife plan to get a divorce.

If this personal problem of the Rockefellers should make it difficult for him to be reelected governor he probably would find it had to persuade the GOP king-makers that he would be good presidential timber. Rockefeller is a frank advocate of more federal participation in the affairs of the nation, which is a direct contrast to Senator Goldwater.

The Arizona senator is a man of conservative views. He is a firm believer that the less government we have -- as far as domestic affairs are concerned -- the better off he will be. He is decidedly against anything that resembles a paternalistic, welfare state.

Senator Goldwater has an amazingly enthusiastic following which seem to be growing. The depth and extent of the conservative movement seems to be the big question surrounding Mr. Goldwater, especially among the younger element.

There is said to be growing interest in an organization known as Young Americans for Freedom which holds the conviction the "the U.S. in the 1960's is at a crossroads between freedom and federal domination." It and other groups with similar views may be an effective force in the elections of the future.

Senator Goldwater and Governor Rockefeller are pretty smart hombres in politics and Mr. Nixon cannot really believe that they would kill themselves off in 1962. If the situation is such when the nominations come up that President Kennedy is a sure thing to repeat you can be assured that sits this one out, Messrs Goldwater and Rockefeller will have seats along the side lines too and some lesser light, one of the expendables, will be sent to the post for the GOP.

On Second Thought

By GLENN F. LOGAN

"This is the season," remarked P. Jefferson Throtheadbottom, champion freeloader and bourbon fancier, "when the prudent drinker will use care and caution and endeavor to fit his tipple to his capacity."

Strange words coming from a man of Throtheadbottom's talents with the flowing bowl but because of this talent one must chalk them down as golden. He always had a reason, or at least an explanation, for what he said or did, as for instance, now...

He reached over and extracted a handful of cigars from his box? "They were out of these at the store when I came by," he explained, firing one up. He released a cloud of smoke contentedly, and resumed:

"Yes sir, the prudent drinker will do well to watch his intake."

"You mean he should turn his glass down or keep it covered?"

P. Jefferson was shocked.

"Certainly not!" he declared. "All he has to do is use care and caution. There will be a lot of free liquor floating about in the next few weeks, winding up with those affairs called office parties with a lot of nips in between."

"Yes," I agreed, "one can get a lot of bad liquor at these parties."

"Speak for yourself," Jeff responded, "but there is an old saying to the effect that no liquor is really bad -- some of it just tastes better."

"What I mean," he said, "is to gauge your drinks so you can enjoy them all. With all this free liquor to be had there is no percentage in guzzling. Make a pig of one's self and what happens? You pass out! That means you will miss out on a lot of things."

"Personally, I like to space my potions so as to maintain a gentle glow. This is difficult to do sometimes, especially at small parties. Big parties are no problem. No one pays any attention to you but at small gatherings there is always some persons present who is allergic to empty or near empty glasses and if you can't keep away from that guy you will be crooked before you know it.

"I know there is a school that warns against sampling a variety of drinks while there is another that contends that it makes no difference that while the flavor or taste of various spirituous liquors differs that all come from the same source -- alcohol.

"Be it gin, bourbon, scotch, Irish or Canadian whiskey, vodka, rum, liquors or wine the basic ingredient is alcohol. I don't believe a little judicious mixing ever hurt anyone. What gets one are the many sickening concoctions that can be built around alcohol -- all that sugar, and spice, milk, cream, eggs, syrups and so on. These are rich mixtures and to down a variety of them would make one sick in itself -- you don't have to add alcohol.

"One must be careful indeed at this season or you may find yourself seething with a mix of eggnog, Tom and Jerry and glug -- that Swedish concoction in which wine is spiced and raised to the nth power thru additional alcohol and then served hot.

"Anyone who likes pneumonia can pick up a beautiful case quite easily. To a cold day add a couple of so-called cocktail parties or at-homes where the host likes to mess around with fancy drinks; drink a couple of glasses of glug (that should be spelled with an umlaut and pronounced accordingly) and follow that up with a couple of mugs of Tom and Jerrys, piping hot. When you begin perspiring profusely go for a walk, bareheaded and with your coat open.

"This should land you in the hospital and let us hope that you have not been using penicillin or one of the wonder drugs every time you get a sniffle so the stuff will work now you need it.

"Have a pleasant and joyous holiday season but keep the drinking simple -- on the rocks, with plain water or seltzer. And when you embark on a round of parties don't drive. That is easy for me, of course, since I don't own a car but really walking is safer. You may fall down, true, but falling is better than being slammed -- on the street or against the windshield. Know your capacity and don't exceed it."

THE LAW

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF
ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
IN COOPERATION WITH THIS NEWSPAPER

This is another in a series of articles provided as a public service by the Illinois State Bar Association for the Semmler Press.

Can I collect from the restaurant owner if my hat is stolen from the hat rack? If my younger brother uses my car on a date and injures someone while driving, am I liable?

These and similar questions are often asked of lawyers by worried clients and curious friends. The answers are found in a special branch of the law known as the "law of bailments."

In everyday language, a bailment is a loan. Generally, a bailment occurs when possession of personal property is given to another (the "bailee"), but the ownership remains in the lender (the "bailor"). Bailments can be for a fixed period of time or for indefinite term, and they can be for pay or free. Bailments relate always to "personalty," that is, tangible property, not attached to land.

Bailments give rise to special rights and duties. A few commonplace examples may help to illustrate some of them. First, a bailment does not occur unless possession of the property is delivered to another.

So, when you hang your hat on the hat rack in the coffee shop, you have not delivered possession to the owner, and, therefore, you cannot hold him responsible as bailee if it is gone when you look for it. However, if you leave your hat with a hat-check girl, then she, and her employer, become the bailees of your chapeau.

The bailee is under a duty to return the property in as good condition as when he received it. If he fails to do so, then the law presumes that he was negligent in injuring or losing the property, and the burden shifts to him to prove he is not at fault.

For example, if you leave your car with an attendant in a parking lot, and find on your return that there is a new dent in the fender, the damage is presumed to have happened thru the carelessness of the attendant. This means that if the case went to court, the attendant or his employer would have to prove that he was not careless with the car while he had possession of it.

This presumption operates for two reasons: First, it is logical to assume that injury or loss to a bailed article is caused by the bailee's neglect, because he had possession of it, and second, the bailee is in a better position than the bailor to prove what happened to the property, again for the reason that he had possession.

The bailor is not responsible for his bailee's negligent use of the property loaned. Thus, if you loan your car to your younger adult brother, and while driving it on his own business he injures someone thru his own fault, you are not responsible to the injured party.

But remember, if the accident occurs by reason of a hidden defect in the auto, that you knew about, or that you should have known of, you may be liable to the injured person. Your failure to warn your bailee of the defect may well be a contributing cause of the accident.

These are only a few rules taken from the law of bailments. They indicate the importance to us all of taking good care of property entrusted to us, and of choosing our "bailees" with care.

That nip in the air ushers in the hunting season. But unless all hunters practice careful use of firearms, fall also ushers the usual toll of hunting accidents, warns University of Illinois safety specialist O. L. Hogsett.

When the corn-picking season is slowed down or lengthened because of the weather, the job of picking and storing corn becomes more tedious and hazardous.

The longer the season is prolonged, the faster people tend to work. They also take more unnecessary chances in an effort to make up for lost time. Hours of pain and misery, loss of limbs and even loss of life itself are sometimes the pay for these actions.

The University of Illinois College of Agriculture winter short course has been set for Feb. 5 to March 16, 1962. The short course offers young farmers an opportunity to attend college classes for six weeks of study. The courses present up-to-date information of farm problems in a fast-changing agriculture.

A University of Illinois College of Agriculture graduate can expect to choose a career from more than 175 fields, according to Associate Dean Karl E. Gardner. In a recent survey the incomes of graduates ranged from $4,000 a year to over $75,000. The average salary was $9,205.

Thirty-seven per cent of all employed persons in the United States are engaged in production, processing and distributing farm products or providing production supplies to farmers.

In 1940, 23 persons out of every 100 in the United States lived on a farm. Today, the farm population makes up about 9 per cent of the total.

Hints For Homeowners

BY JAMES FIZZELL,
ASS'T. FARM ADVISER

With the coming of the holiday seasons, many households will be receiving flowers either as gifts, or for everyday use as decorations. There are few things which will brighten up a room or lend a friendly atmosphere as well as fresh flowers.

Every florist uses all means available to him to get your flowers to you in the best possible condition, but it is up to the recipient to take proper measures to insure maximum life of the flowers.

When cut flowers are received, about 1/2 to 1 inch of the bottom of the stem should be cut off, and the stems immediately immersed in warm water. If possible, the flowers should be put in a cool place for a couple of hours until they pick up water.

An important factor in keeping flowers fresh is the acidity or pH of the water in which they are placed. Research has shown that flowers definitely keep better if the water is on the acid side. Most water supplies in our area are on the alkaline side, and addition of an acid such as citric acid to the water will usually be of considerable help in the keeping of cut flowers. Citric acid is available in most drug stores, or aspirin is sometimes used for this purpose. Special flower preservatives are even more effective. They are often packed in a small envelope with cut flowers at the florist, or you can buy some from him the next time you are in.

Different types of flowers vary in the length of time they stay fresh after they are cut. Some, such as carnations and chrysanthemums will keep from two or three weeks if the stems are cut and the water changed every few days. More delicate flowers such as roses, snapdragons, and stocks are not as long lived even under the best conditions; however, proper care will help to make these flowers last the maximum time possible.

Pot plants too need care for best performance.

Most plants don't like the warm dry air we have in our homes. Keeping the plant in a cool and moist place at night, and bringing it out during the day will sometimes double its life.

Pot plants need frequent but judicious watering. If the pot is covered with foil, punch a hole in the bottom so the water will run out, and set it in a saucer. After watering, pour the excess water out of the saucer.

Some plants such as poinsettias are very sensitive. Drafts, sudden temperature changes, improper watering or too little light causes the leaves to drop.

Flowering pot plants do require a little extra attention, but the reward is well worth the effort.

An excellent publication on care of these plants is available for the asking from our office.

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The securities markets are reflecting a more optimistic attitude toward general business as had been predicted by leading analysts. The general feeling expressed by most of the better known analysts, is that the market will continue to increase, but on a selective basis. Steel orders are showing a substantial increase which is expected to carry well into 1962. To some degree, this increase is being attributed to the labor contract negotiations which will come up due to contract renewal due in June. Heavy steel users as the automobile firms, are reputed to be building substantial inventories against a possible steel strike.

The better grade stocks or so-called blue chips have been favored which suggests that the large investors lean to the conservative side at this point. The more conservative issues are heavily weighted with what are known as "defensive" stock as food, tobacco, utilities, etc. The retail stocks, service industries, banks and insurance stocks are getting considerable attention.

The "discounters" in the retail field, have been very active. These would include Korvette, Interstate Department Stores, Vornado, Holly Stores, Aldens, etc.; the names to be added to the list of "discounters" will increase steadily.

Some analysts in field of retailing express the opinion that the discounters will probably follow a development pattern that is quite similar to the development of super markets.

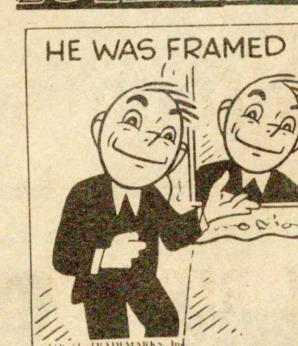

The opinion is expressed that the discounters will prove to be more competitive with large retail outlets rather than smaller units. The pattern of development in super markets, has been toward units which will have sales far larger than possible with appeal only to small or neighborhood markets.

It is noted that discounters, as defined in financial circles, are those that strive toward a minimum of sales clerk assistance in individual sales and heavy emphasis on pre-sold items. Those items which have been pre-sold are those which have become well known thru advertising.

It is believed that the development in discount field will have its heaviest impact on the large retail outlets rather than medium and smaller outlets whose emphasis is on individual appeal rather than mass appeal. It would seem likely that some of the better known retail organizations, would seek outlets in suburban areas where it is possible to develop large single-floor buildings and ample parking space as well as highway patterns making for easy access to the store. Geographers have been predicting this development of business activity, for quite some time, in volume.

The publishing of textbooks has been considered a field which will be especially benefited by the increase in school enrollment. Normal population growth provides a steady market.

Suburban Schools Teach Courses In Civil Defense

A new educational program designed to create more effective civil defense plans has been inaugurated in the public schools of suburban Cook county, it was announced by Dr. Noble J. Puffer, county superintendent of schools.

"The new program was conceived because of the growing tensions in world affairs and because of the greater emphasis our government is placing on civil defense," said Dr. Puffer.

"Schools can be especially helpful in civil defense not only by providing for the protection of children, but also by taking the lead in educating the communities on the best civil defense practices," he explained.

Dr. Puffer pointed out that one major phase of the new educational effort, known as the "School Program for Disaster Survival," is aimed primarily at the protection of children and personnel.

"Workshops and other local meetings are being conducted throughout the county in which attention is being given to three phases of civil defense planning," said Dr. Puffer.

"These phases include the drafting of building protection plans, the need for in-service civil defense training program for teachers, and the incorporation of disaster planning in the total educational program of every school in the county," he explained.

A second part of the civil defense program, Dr. Puffer explained, is directed at adults. A special 15-hour session for teachers for the adult training is being offered in the suburban area, with six of such classes having been completed in October.

Dr. Puffer reported that more than 200 teachers participated in the completed training sessions, which were held in the Arlington Heights, Proviso township, and Thornton township high schools.

The Cook county school head also reported that his office has prepared a list of teachers qualified to teach civil defense courses for the convenience of local school officials. He said only approved and qualified teachers can conduct the adult courses, which consist of 12 hours of sessions.

School districts offering the civil defense courses for adults will be reimbursed by the federal government at a rate of $60 for each class of 35 adult students, Dr. Puffer said.

"Many school districts in the Chicago suburban area already have begun the adult training program," he said, "and more than 20 school districts are scheduled to start such courses soon."

SCRAMBLE COMING UP when ball comes down. The youth in the white suit wearing No. 44 is Lincoln-Way's tall center, Dan Lajcin and that Peotone man also up in the air and whose number you can't see is Fred Van Ihten. The rest of the two teams are waiting for the ball to come down and when it does there will be some fancy scrambling. There are two cardinal rules in basketball--get the ball and put it thru the hoop.

L W Beats Peotone 53 47 For 2nd Consecutive Win

BY PAUL BROWN
Knights Trip Blue Devils, 53-47

A fired-up Lincoln-Way team tripped the scrappy Blue Devils of Peotone at Lincoln-Way last Wednesday by a score of 53-47.

It was the second victory of the new season for the Knights who beat Plainfield last week. This was Peotone's first loss. They beat Beecher in their first outing, 82-50.

Six foot four-inch center, Dan Lajcin, of the Knights took scoring honors with 20 points to his credit. Jerry Sayers was second for Lincoln-Way with 10. High man for Peotone was center, Harry Helfrich, who poured in 17 points. Fred Van Ihten backed him up with seven.

The Knights held a slim margin most of the way, leading 10-8 at the end of the first quarter, and 28-24 at intermission. Peotone cut the lead down to 2 points at the end of the third stanza, 39-37.

There was a lot of fouling in the game supported by the fact that four Peotone players fouled out and two Knights took an early rest.

The Lincoln-Way frosh-soph also beat the Blue Devils, 48-33.

This Friday night the Knights will be hosts to the Eagles of Carl Sandburg in the first conference battle for both teams. The Eagles won their last outing against Blue Island very handily. Last year the Knights took both games from Sandburg, so this year both games should be very hard fought.

Pepsi Lead Jr. Keglers At Frankfort

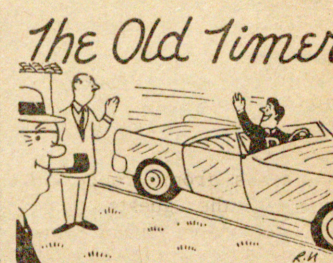

The Little Bowling League at Frankfort is rolling right along, but members were reminded last week that attendance is a requisite unless they want their teams and averages to suffer.

Last Saturday the Orange Crushes moved into second place thru getting three games on forfeit from the Squirts. Three of the Squirt team failed to appear which meant the team lost three games. Each individual player loses 10 from his average everytime he is absent. The Pepsiolas are on top.

There is a waiting list of youngsters who would like to bowl on one of the six teams that make up the league and it is possible, it was said, that the rules will be altered to provide for means to drop chronic absentees and replace them from the waiting list.

Youngsters in the league range in age from eight to 14. There are six teams of five members each and they follow the same rules as prescribed for adult leagues. The games are rolled on the Frankfort lanes Saturday afternoons, beginning at 1 o'clock.

Top bowlers among the boys last week were, Larry Subbert, 162 high game, 404 series; Eldon Schwarz, 154-396; Keith Fordonski, 137-373. Top girl bowlers were, Marie Hauser, 140-355; Kathy Fortman, 121-298 and Rita Roman, 104-298.

Sandburg Quint Wins Two, Ready For League Foes

BY GEORGE FREED

According to the encyclopedia "The Falcon attacks prey as large as themselves and larger". This was true Thanksgiving Eve, when the Sandburg Eagles invaded the lair of the Falcons of Thornridge High school, Sandburg's rangy front line, averaging about 6-2 proved too large for the shorter Thornridge five as the Eagles won their opener 51-42.

Sandburg started the game with only one regular back from the team that posted a respectable 15-7 record a year ago. Big Lance Roberts shared scoring honors with sophomore Dick Hlavek, each collecting 16 points. Hlavek shows promise of becoming the ball handler and take charge guy so badly needed if a team is to enjoy a successful season.

All conference gridders Jim Lavine and Dan Wasick may have experienced difficulty making the quick change from turf to hardwood, but with a few games under their belt should give Roberts and Hlavek a lot of assistance in the scoring department.

Sandburg had a good 11-3 first quarter lead, then gave up some of it when the Falcons threw a press at them, but still managed to lead by three at intermission, 25-22.

Outscoring their opponents again in the second half, the Eagles took home a shakily played, but psychologically important win 51-42.

BEAT BLUE ISLAND

Saturday night an overflow crowd packed the Sandburg gym to watch the first home game of the new basketball season. The Sandburg five put on a fine display of shooting baskets to down Blue Island 65-51. It was the second win in two games for the tall, talented Eagles. Coach Bill Adams has always stressed defense but in this game his boys were down right stingy in the first period, allowing the "Islanders" only 4 points. The 14 point lead was never surrendered and only in the fourth quarter after two Eagles had fouled out, did Blue Island give the Sandburgs any trouble at all.

The Eagles displayed remarkable scoring balance which reminded one of the Sandburg team of two years ago when 3 and 4 boys would consistently score in the double figures. In this game, Hlavek scored 18 points, Roberts had 15, Devoursney 14, Wasick 10 and Lavine got eight. Both teams pressed from the start, but as indicated by the score Sandburg's press was best.

The Eagles looked much improved over their effort in the opener. Hlavek and Wasick looked real sharp as a pair of guards that could develop into the best in the conference.

With two non-conference victories in their nest, the Eagles are ready to take on the defending champs of the Southwest Suburban conference on Friday evening when they travel to Lincoln-Way.

The Knights, who posted a spectacular 24-3 record last year, are hurting with the loss of four of their championship quintet. Ron Yunker, Lincoln-Way's star athlete, is the only one back from that team. Although reportedly weaker than last year, the Knights have won their two non-conference warm-ups, trouncing Plainfield and Peotone.

THEIR COWS HAVE HIGH PRODUCTION

Heading the Will County Dairy Service production report covering a period of 305 days or less, is a cow, #42, owned by Walter Lauffer of Tinley Park. It produced 697 pounds of butter fat and 18,688 pounds of milk.

The other cows owned by farmer Lauffer, #6 and 23, produced 604 and 603 pounds of butter fat respectively; 17,326 and 13,769 pounds of milk respectively in the same period.

Two other cows owned by Lauffer, #21 and #7, produced 103 and 101 pounds of butter fat respectively; 2,337 and 2,359 pounds of milk in 30 days.

Lauffer's cows also made the Dairy Service honor roll for the month of October, with an average of 1,40 pounds of butter fat and 34.4 average pounds of milk.

Another local farmer on the honor roll in October, whose cows were highest in production, was William Bernard of Mokena. They produced 1,47 average pounds of butter fat and 37.2 average pounds of milk.

A cow named, Cherry, owned by Krusemark and Clemens of Frankfort, produced 655 pounds of butter fat and 16,512 pounds of milk in less than 305 days.

HOMER NEWS

BY ELIZABETH ANDERSON

The Wayside Workers Circle of King's Daughters will hold their annual Christmas luncheon at Homer Church at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 7. Mrs. George Burcham and Mrs. Don Aspel will arrange the meal. Mrs. F. J. Paddock, Mrs. J. J. Paddock and Mrs. Stanley Cox will be in charge of the program. An offering for the Indian work of the order will be taken in lieu of a gift exchange.

On Sunday, Dec. 3, several new members will join Homer Church, during the morning service. Communion will be served. A pot-luck dinner will precede the annual meeting of the church which will convene at 1 o'clock. Persons who cannot attend all of these sessions are urged to plan for as much as possible. Coffee and meat will be prepared at the church.

Bob Burch returned last Wednesday from a hunting trip to Wisconsin. He brought home a good sized deer which he shot on Saturday, the opening day of the hunting season.

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Kropp of 143rd St. are the parents of a son born Nov. 14 at Silver Cross Hospital.

State Police Chief Gives Tips On Winter Driving

To help drivers learn from experience without themselves causing a traffic blockade or having an accident, William H. Morris, superintendent of the Illinois State Police, outlined the following information about traction abilities on slippery streets and roads.

1 -- Snow tires provide up to 51 per cent better traction than regular tires on loosely packed snow, and up to 28 per cent improvement on ice. With careful driving, and under conditions which are not generally severe, or where grades are not steep, this added traction is of some aid. Snow tires do not, however, replace wheel chains during deep snow conditions.

2 -- Reinforced wheel chains provide 313 per cent better traction than regular tires on snow, and 409 per cent more traction on ice. For deep snow, hard packed snow or glare ice, particularly where there are hills, this greater pulling power of tire chains is quite significant.

3 -- Stopping ability is an extremely important factor in accident prevention. On dry pavement, a car equipped with regular tires and traveling 20 miles an hour, can be stopped in 21 feet. On loosely packed snow it takes 60 feet, on glare ice 200 feet. Snow tires will reduce stopping distance to 52 feet on snow and 174 feet on glare ice. Reinforced chains cut the distance to 38 feet on snow and 77 feet on ice.

Brand New Tinley Titans Enter First Cage Contest

The best basketball teams that Tinley Park high school has ever had will take the floor against Thornton Fractional South Friday night, Dec. 1. The freshman game starting at 6:30 p.m., on the Tinley home court will go down in history as the first basketball game for the new school. The main event, the sophomore game, will follow.

The new school that has only first and second year students had 76 eager, young candidates answering the call for hoopsters given several weeks ago by Athletic Director L. J. Callan. As the date for the initial game of the first season approaches, that figure has been reduced to 29.

Sophomore Coach George Hill has chosen 14 boys whom he will pit against the best in the Southeast Suburban conference and Duane Everhart, freshman coach has picked 15 first year students for his team.

Hill's sophomores, who will compete for a trophy in the newly formed Southeast Suburban loop, can boast of having only two boys who have ever played high school basketball before. Probable starting forward, Victor Omiecinski, and center Rich Behrens played frosh ball for Bremen last year. The only experience of the other boys has been on the grade school level or of the backyard variety.

Jerry Redman, who has already made a name for himself on the gridiron, and Martin Dmytrasz are vying for the other forward slot on the starting team. Colin Sorenson, Rich Wehr and Bob Patrick are battling to see who will fill the two guard positions.

Flooring a green team and not knowing much about the opposition in a new league, Coach Hill is proceeding with caution. He and Coach Everhart have been putting the emphasis on defensive basketball to help eliminate the possibility of any team running over their young stalwarts.

A win Friday in the opener, which is a conference contest, would do wonders for the Titans of Tinley. Then, if they held their own in the two non-conference tilts following, they might even rare up and whip the strong Rich-Central team scheduled for Dec. 15. (Let's plan it that way, Coach).

The schedule for the Tinley Park school, calls for 18 games, 10 of which are played against conference foes. The Southeast Suburban conference is made up of schools from, Crete-Monee, Bradley-Bourbonnais, Rich-Central, and Thornton Fractional North and South.

Participation in a holiday tournament at Rich-Central in Olympia Fields on December 26, 28 and 30, will break up the season that lasts until Feb. 24.

The outcome of this seasons play will be determined not by how good the Tinley Team is but how good the other teams are. With good school spirit, enthusiasm and fine coaching on their side the Tinley Titans should do all right. Good luck gentlemen.

Carl Sandburg Squad Is Tall And Eager

Coach Bill Adams of Carl Sandburg High School is not making any predictions about his basketball team this year, but it isn't hard to see that he is going to have a pretty fair bunch of ball players.

He has only one returning letterman and that is 6'4" Lance Roberts. Jim Levine a 6'3" senior will team up with Roberts in the forward spots. Tallest man on the Eagle squad is John DeVoursney at 6'5" and he will be the center. Dan Wasick and Dick Hlavek, two six footers, will run the guard spots.

Adams has only one player on his first 15 who is less than six foot tall and they are all big strong boys. He doesn't figure his squad to be particularly fast but all that height will give him at least a team that can do lots of rebounding. If he wished, Adams would have enough height to field a squad that would average 6'3"... a pleasant prospect for any coach.

This year in the Southwest Suburban Conference Adams expects the tough teams to be Rich of Park Forest, Bremen and Homewood-Flossmoor. Sandburg should also be a strong contender, but Adams chose not to step out on a limb and say so.

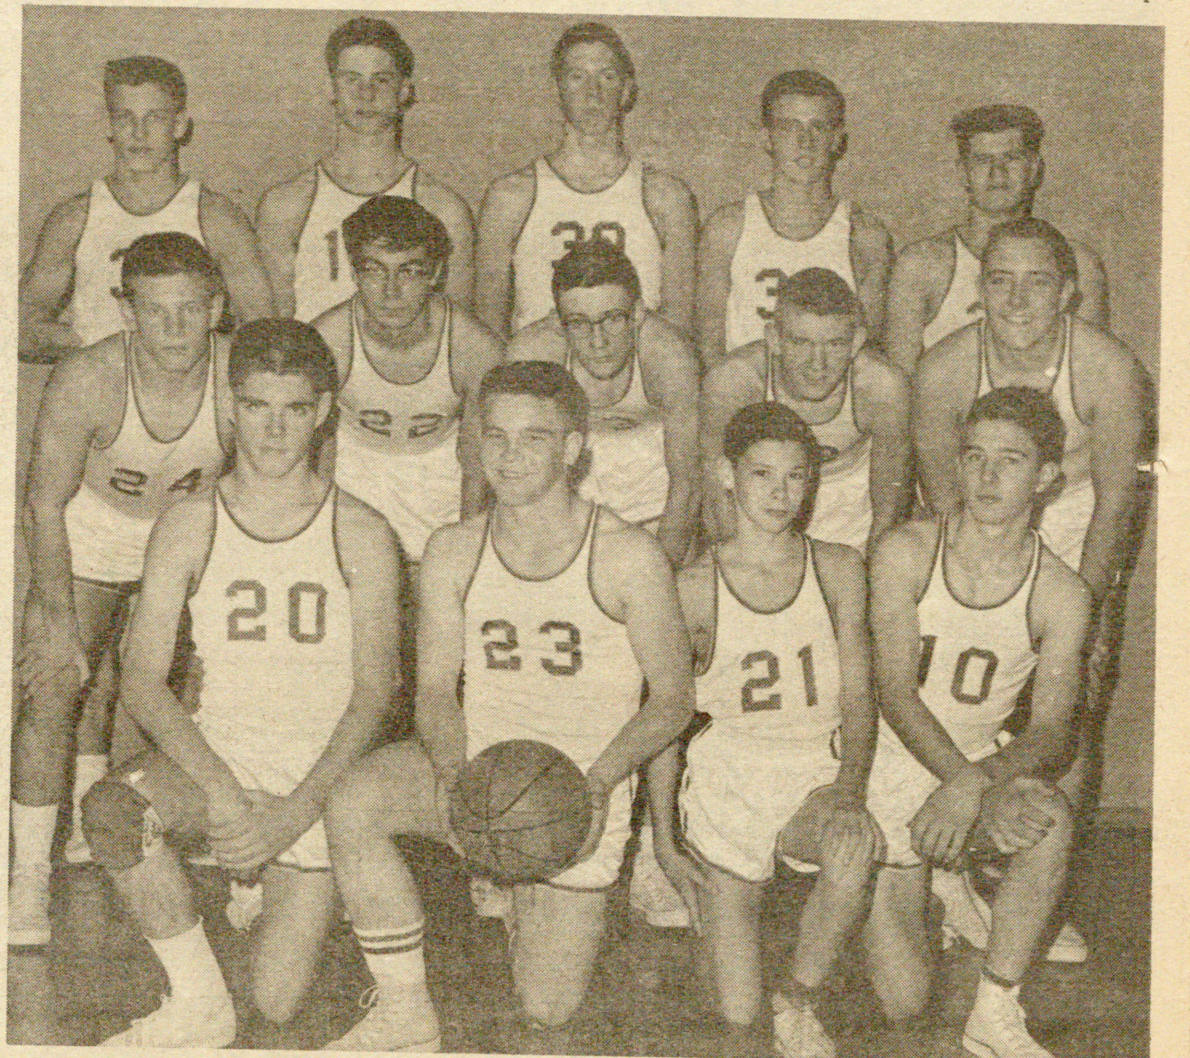

Adams has ten seniors, four juniors and a sophomore on this year's varsity string and they are all pushing hard to get a starting spot.

Lemont Looking At Tough Schedule

Lemont Varsity Basketball Coach Hal Julian has cut his squad to 15 in preparation for the winter cage wars. He is blessed with a trio of three senior lettermen, Bill Wesolowski, Jim Virtel and Paul Powers, who will serve as a nucleus for this year's team.

They enjoyed playing for one of Lemont's best teams last year which posted a 19 won and 7 lost record. A pair of tall cousins, each 6'4" are hopeful prospects to fill the forward spots. They are Bob and Gib Endecavegeh. Although Julian has nine seniors on the first 15 he will have to dip into his juniors from time to time to give his squad overall strength and height.

During the Christmas holidays one of the major cage tourneys of the area will be at Lincoln-Way where the Knights play host to a covey of fine teams.

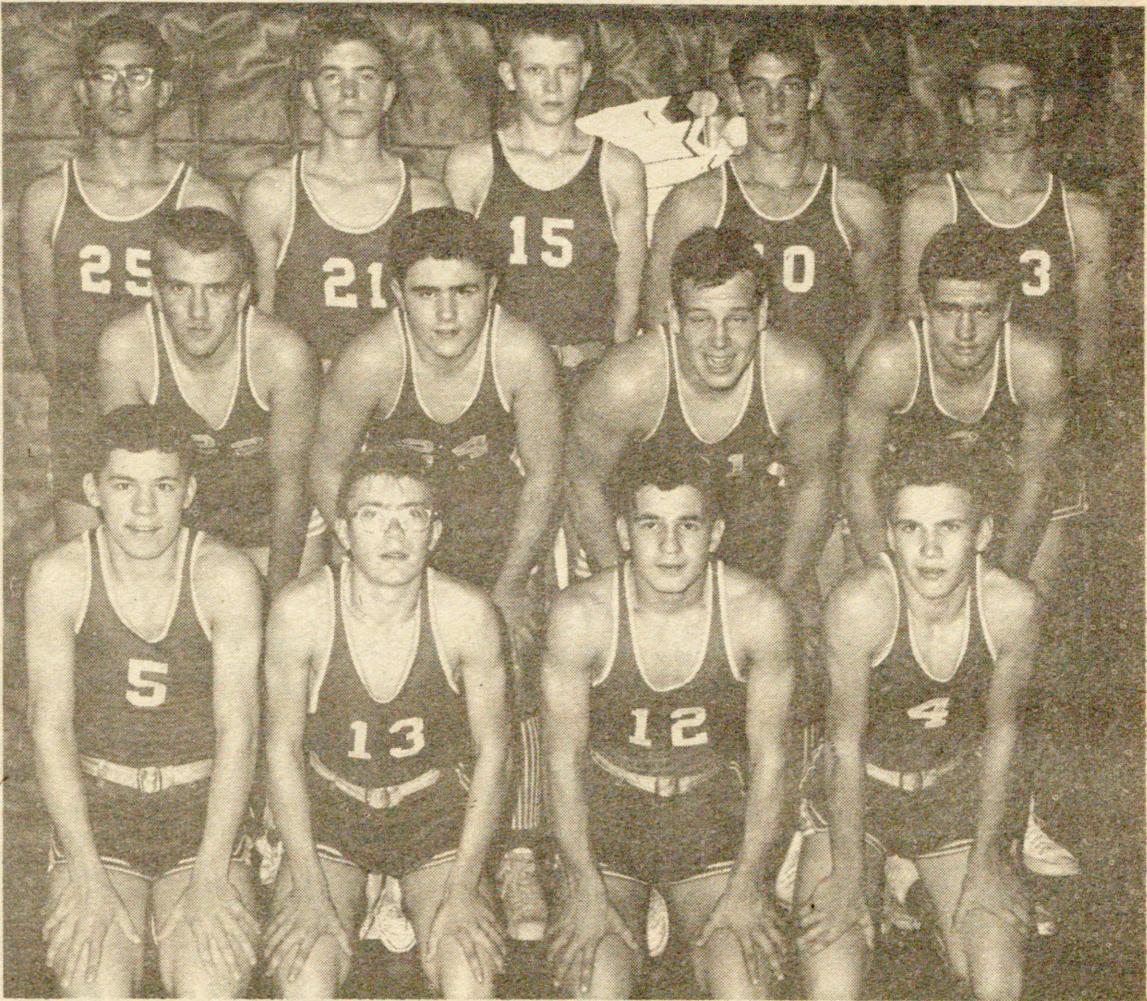

Invited to attend will be Lemont, Braidwood, Thornton-Fractional North, Bradley, Momence, Manteno and Coal City. This is of special interest to Lemont fans because the Indians were edged out of this tourney title last year.

The Lemont basketball program is undergoing a slight change this season as the volume of players out is so great that it is now possible to field strictly sophomore and strictly freshmen squads. This should produce a larger group of good varsity prospects and provide some additional chance for Lemont High boys to play basketball. The new frosh squad will be coached by Bud Mohns.

John Jones' sophomores will have quite a bit of experience as there are eight encore performers from last years unit. In addition to their regular slate, the Lemont sophs will take part in the big Sophomore tournament at Olympia fields Dec. 26, 28 and 30th at Rich Central High school.

Braves Expecting A Busy 1961-62 Season

Forty-five percent of the Varsity football team will take the floor Dec. 1 when Bremen's Basketball team meets Oak Lawn in their Southwest Suburban Conference Opener.

Head Coach E. G. Lussow is building his team around two returning lettermen, 6'2" AllSuburban tackle Fred Cornish and 6'4" Al Lussow, a speedster on the gridiron and on the hardwood. Cliff Cebulski, the tallest man on the squad at 6'5" will go at center, backed up by Bob Thomas or Ken Webster, both 6'4".

Also shedding their football gear for shorts and shirts are probable starters Tom Diehl at 5'11" and Andy Scianna 6' 1".

With his big team, Coach Lussow hopes to improve on last year's 10 win and 9 loss record, which produced a fourth place spot in the SWS Conference.

Lussow, who was Frosh-Soph coach last season, has his work cut out for him, trying to find some fast methods to get the rough edges off his ex-football players and smooth them into the more graceful and lung-twisting game for the winter.

Big guns in the Southwest Suburban this year will be Homewood-Flossmoor, Rich of Park Forest and in the eye of many other coaches, the Bremen Braves.

Although this is Lussow's first season as varsity coach he should have no trouble, due to his prior tenure in the Bremen system.

His boys are strong, tall and they want to win ball games, about all else a coach could ask for is speed and you can bet Coach Lussow is working on that factor for all it's worth.

Lockport Shooting For Top Spot In Pontiac And Naperville Tournaments

Second Annual Holiday Basketball Supplement
Page 12 Thurs. Nov. 30, 1961

Lockport Township High School basketball prospects are good this year, according to Coach Bill Connors. His squad is made up of three returning lettermen and a string of fair junior prospects.

Lockport, a member of the powerful South Suburban League, is expecting to be on a fairly equal level with it's fellow conference members this season. Most every team in the SSL is in just about the same shape as the Porters. Most have three or four lettermen back and as Coach Connors says, "On any given night, any team in the conference should be able to beat any other team."

He further predicted that the Conference winner would almost certainly suffer at least three losses, and there is plenty of chance for a two or three way tie for the top spot in the conference.

Because of this close competition, SSL teams are expected to get some tough tests early in the season and the prospects of all the SSL teams in Christmas Tournaments should be pretty good.

Last year in the Naperville Holiday Tourney the Porters took second place, losing in the championship game to a powerful Wheaton Squad 55-47. This year the Lockport squad will again be one of the favorites. To date, the list of entries has not been announced, but last year the teams were Wheaton, Plainfield, Lisle, St. Procopius, Yorkville, Sandwich, Naperville and Lockport.

In their other holiday test the Porters will travel to Pontiac after Christmas on Dec. 27, 28 and 29 for one of the most challenging series of games offered in Illinois outside of the State Finals.

Last year the teams entered were Rock Island Allman, Anna-Jonesboro, Edwardsville, Peoria Richwoods, Springfield, Watseka, Lincoln, Waukegan, Pontiac, La-Salle-Peru, Clinton, Maine West, Bloom, Jacksonville, Princeton and Lockport.

In this one the Porters defeated Princeton 63-62 and then bowed grudgingly to Springfield, ranked fourth in the State, 57-43.

This season the Porters will depend on 6'5" Rich Acuff at center, Ken Kirk, 6'1" at one guard and Bob Gatson 6' at a forward. All three are lettermen from last year and they will be the nucleus of the team. Top prospects for the other two starting spots will be Pete Fulton, Jim Goeke, Joe Sartori and a big crew of juniors who have little varsity experience but all kind of desire. Friday night, Dec. 1 the Porters will play their first conference game of the current season against Thornridge.

Freshman Coach

Second Annual Holiday
Basketball Supplement
Page 14 Thurs. Nov. 30, 1961

LINCOLN-WAY FIGURES TO BE SWS DARK HORSE TEAM

Lincoln-Way High School basketball coach William Edwards is a freshman at the New Lenox

School this year and is in a somewhat unenviable position. He is in a tough conference, the Southwest Suburban, and most of the coaches in it know more about his players and his team than he does, this early in the season.

Edwards was formerly basketball coach at Litchfield High School down in Southern Illinois and is already quite impressed with the Southwest Suburban. As of this writing he has not seen any conference opponents, so it is rather difficult to get any predictions from him.

In general his squad has fair speed average height and are not considered too dangerous by most of their SWS Conference opponents.

Edwards hopes to change this factor and is happy to note that he has a bunch of intelligent players who are taking to his system rapidly. It is no easy task to teach a new method of play in one season, but as the year progresses Coach Edwards hopes to start seeing some results of his work.

The Knights have already played a set of games and Edwards has a starting five chosen. Joe Reinhard and Ron Yunker are the forwards, Ron Badten and Jerry Sayers are the guards. Don Lajcin is the center.

Top reserves on his team are forwards John Burroughs and Jim Miller and guard Kurt Lajcin.

Edwards works with all his team, varsity, jr.-varsity sophomores and freshmen and is relying on teaching the basics now so that he can concentrate on the fine points in upcoming squads. Gene McGivern coaches the sophs and Jim Wrath the freshmen.
